Scripture Reading

The man gave names to all livestock and to the birds of the heavens and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper fit for him. So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and while he slept took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man." Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed. (Genesis 2:20-25)

Growing Deeper

Marriage is frequently used in Scripture as a description of the relationship between God and his people. Think about the ways God has shown those attributes (love, mercy, forgiveness, patience, kindness, etc.) in our relationship with him.

Moving Closer

What might need to change in our marriages or in our lives as singles to better reflect the life to which Jesus calls us?

Reaching Farther

What messages are our marriages or our relationships as singles communicating the world around us?
