Scripture Reading

“To what then shall I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, ““We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not weep.’

For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon.’ The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look at him! A glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is justified by all her children.”

(Luke 7:31-35 ESV)

Reaching Farther

Jesus sees people. When we engage with others around us, do we see them as people or do we tend to label them by their sins?

Moving Closer

What change is Jesus asking us to make as we sit at the table with him?

Growing Deeper

Spend time this week thanking Jesus for welcoming us to His table.
