Scripture Reading

Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house!' And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.'
(Luke 10:3-11 ESV)

Thank You

“Thank you for the cards and phone calls during this dark time of my life. You will never know how much it meant to me to see you and receive your hugs at Don's memorial service. Thank you for taking the time. Our years spent at Bella Vista Church were such a special part of our lives. Don and I loved each of you so much. You are truly and example of 'God's People.'” — Love In Him, Ola Harless

Reaching Farther

Pray that God lead us to those on whom he is working so that we may invite them into his kingdom.

Moving Closer

Continue to take advantage of opportunities to demonstrate that we belong to the Kingdom of God.

Growing Deeper

Think about the ways in which Jesus has equipped and shaped us to carry his message to others.
