Scripture Reading

Someone in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

But he said to him, “Man, who made me a judge or arbitrator over you?” And he said to them, “Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.” And he told them a parable, saying, “The land of a rich man produced plentifully, and he thought to himself, ‘What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?’”

And he said, ‘I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, “Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.”’ But God said to him, ‘Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’

So is the one who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.”
(Luke 12:13-21 ESV)

Reaching Farther

Look for more opportunities to share what God has given us with others. Not only our material goods, but also things like our time, our presence, or talents.

Moving Closer

There is often a good deal of stress during this time of year. How much of our worry and anxiety reflects where we have put our hope and trust?

Growing Deeper

It is often easy to see what we believe we may lack and the desire for more can be a real issue. Spend time this week in reflecting on the things that God has provided and give thanks.
