Scripture Reading

For the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations.
As you have done, it shall be done to you;
your deeds shall return on your own head.
For as you have drunk on my holy mountain,
so all the nations shall drink continually;
they shall drink and swallow,
and shall be as though they had never been.
But in Mount Zion there shall be those who escape,
and it shall be holy,
and the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions.
(Obadiah 15-17 ESV)

Thank You

“Thank you for allowing us to have John Henry Sr.’s services at the church. Our entire family thanks you for your kindness and hospitality.” – Suzanne & John H. Hayes Jr.

“Please extend our sincere gratitude to the Bella Vista church. We can never repay you back for all the kindness and help you have given us. Thank you for being here for us.” – Brenda Treadwell

Reaching Farther

To whom do we need to reach out and serve rather than remain distant from in order for them to see the goodness of God?

Moving Closer

Read Obadiah 10-14. Notice how pride moves us in the opposite direction from God. What do we need to do to stop moving that direction?

Growing Deeper

Read all of Obadiah and listen for the ways God cares for his people, and the promises that he makes to deal with their enemies. Spend some time thanking him for his love and care even in our difficulties.
