Scripture Reading

On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Ask the priests about the law: 'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment and touches with his fold bread or stew or wine or oil or any kind of food, does it become holy?'" The priests answered and said, "No." Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?" The priests answered and said, "It does become unclean." Then Haggai answered and said, "So is it with this people, and with this nation before me, declares the LORD, and so with every work of their hands. And what they offer there is unclean.
(Haggai 2:10-14 ESV)

Reaching Farther

How might God be using us to reach someone for him this week?

Moving Closer

What habits of holiness do we need to cultivate this week? Is it increased time in the word, or a deeper prayer life, or seeking a place to get involved? Are there others you could think of?

Growing Deeper

Reflect on what it means that God wants to use us as his representatives. Do we think of it as a blessing, or a enormous responsibility, or both?
