Scripture Reading

When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. And they were saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?” And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back—it was very large. And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed. And he said to them, “Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.” And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had seized them, and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid. (Mark 16:1-8 ESV)

Reaching Farther

Who will I tell about the resurrection this week?

Moving Closer

What about my life communicates to others that the resurrection is true?

Growing Deeper

With the Governor lifting the mask mandate this past week, we have decided that wearing a mask in worship is no longer considered a requirement, especially for those who have received the Covid vaccine. We think that it might still be a good idea to continue to wear your mask if a) you have not received the vaccine or b) if you feel more comfortable in continuing to wear a mask. In every instance, however, whether mask or no mask, we are confident that each will continue to be respectful and thoughtful of others as we continue to navigate this change.
