Scripture Reading

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him. (John 2:1-11 ESV)

Reaching Farther

Who do we know that needs to hear about Jesus who gives in abundance?

Moving Closer

Take time this week to find the joy in time spent with others and to thank God for the ways he provides opportunity to enjoy life.

Growing Deeper

Read John 2:1-11 again and reflect on how Jesus coming to be with us is the beginning of the good things to come.

Thank You

"To all the wonderful people, Thanks so much for the cards, calls, food, flowers and visits that helped my recovery from a broken hip. It is not an easy journey and all of our help makes it easier. God bless you all." – Mary E. Harris
