Scripture Reading

Beloved, I urge you as sojourners and exiles to abstain from the passions of the flesh, which wage war against your soul. Keep your conduct among the Gentiles honorable, so that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation.

Be subject for the Lord’s sake to every human institution, whether it be to the emperor as supreme, or to governors as sent by him to punish those who do evil and to praise those who do good. For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. (1 Peter 2:11-17 ESV)

Reaching Farther

In my interaction with others, whether in person or through technology, do I demonstrate that the life to which God calls is really a good life?

Moving Closer

What are some characteristics of the good life, demonstrated by Jesus, that I need to incorporate into my life this week?

Growing Deeper

Spend time this week thanking God for the good life he has made possible for us.
