Scripture Reading

For Christ suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is eight persons, were brought safely through water. Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him.
(1 Peter 3:18-22 ESV)

Reaching Farther

Pray that we watch for God to give us the opportunity to extend grace to someone this week.

Moving Closer

Read John 21 and notice how Jesus extends grace to Peter. Is there someone to whom we need to extend this kind of grace this week?

Growing Deeper

Read 1 Peter 3:18-22 and notice all that God has done so that we can be saved.
