Scripture Reading

On one occasion, while the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret, and he saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets." And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. (Luke 5:1-7 ESV)

Other Notes

"Dear Church,
Thank you to everyone for your kind words, cards and messages in the death of my sister. It has meant so much to me. I'm truly blessed to belong to this loving church family. With Christian Love" – Carylton Watson

Reaching Farther

Be aware of those we meet who are in need of good news. Pray for opportunity and courage to share Jesus with them.

Moving Closer

What is Jesus asking us to do that we think is impossible, or that we believe we have already tried?

Growing Deeper

Spend time this week thanking God for what he has given us through Jesus and for his patience with us as we grow into his plans for us.
